

Colorado Kids Sun Care Program

University of Colorado at Denver and Health Sciences Center
4200 E. 9th Avenue, Box B-119
Denver, Colorado 80262

April 24, 2006

Dear <<parent first and last name>>:

As you know, you and your child <insert name> are part of a research study called the "Colorado Kids Sun Care Program." With this letter, we are sending you the first installment of our 2006 newsletters. The enclosed newsletter provides information about skin cancer and how to protect your child from the sun. Over the next 3 weeks, we will be sending you 3 more newsletters on this topic. We hope you will read the information carefully and that it will be helpful to you.

If you have any questions about your participation in the Colorado Kids Sun Care Program or about the information contained in the enclosed newsletter, you may call the Program Office at UCDHSC (303-315-2534) or contact Dr. Stefan Mokrohisky at Kaiser Permanente of Colorado (303-861-3558).

Sincerely,

Lori A. Crane

Lori A. Crane, Ph.D.
Principal Investigator
University of Colorado
School of Medicine

Stefan T. Mokrohisky M.D.

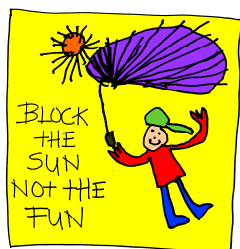

Stefan T. Mokrohisky, M.D.
Principal Investigator
Kaiser Permanente of Colorado
Department of Pediatrics

Joseph E. Morelli

Joseph Morelli, M.D.
Co-Principal Investigator
University of Colorado
Departments of Dermatology and Pediatrics

Colorado Kids Sun Care Program

University of Colorado at Denver and Health Sciences Center
4200 E. 9th Avenue, Box B-119
Denver, Colorado 80262

May 10, 2006

Dear <<parent first and last name>>:

This is your second mailing for 2006 from the "Colorado Kids Sun Care Program." In the newsletter enclosed, you will learn about your child's risk for skin cancer. It includes information that is specifically related to your child. It is based on information from the telephone interviews and/or the skin exams that you and your child completed over the last two years. That information indicates that your child <specific risk designation, eg. lots of moles >.

Please read the enclosed newsletter to learn about <child's first name>'s chances of getting skin cancer at some time in his/her life. Over the next few weeks, we will be sending more information about what you can do to lower your child's chances of getting skin cancer. We hope you find this information to be helpful.

If you have any questions about your participation in the Colorado Kids Sun Care Program or about the information contained in the enclosed newsletter, you may call the Program Office at UCDHSC (303-315-2534) or contact Dr. Stefan Mokrohisky at Kaiser Permanente of Colorado (303-861-3558).

Sincerely,

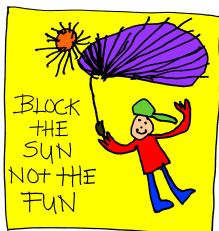

Lori A. Crane, Ph.D.
Principal Investigator
University of Colorado
School of Medicine

Stefan T. Mokrohisky, M.D.
Principal Investigator
Kaiser Permanente of Colorado
Department of Pediatrics

Joseph Morelli, M.D.
Co-Principal Investigator
University of Colorado
Departments of Dermatology and Pediatrics
<code>

Colorado Kids Sun Care Program

University of Colorado at Denver and Health Sciences Center
4200 E. 9th Avenue, Box B-119
Denver, Colorado 80262

May 16, 2006

Dear <<parent first and last name>>:

This is your third mailing for 2006 from the "Colorado Kids Sun Care Program." In the information enclosed, you will learn how you can lower your child's chances of getting skin cancer by limiting the amount of time that your child spends unprotected in the mid-day sun, and by using sunscreen correctly. Please read it carefully. We hope you find it to be helpful.

We are including two sunscreen products (one bottle of lotion and one sunscreen stick) to get you started with this year's efforts to lower your child's chances of getting skin cancer some day. The sunscreen was donated by Schering-Plough Healthcare Products, Inc. We hope you find this to be helpful!

If you have any questions about your participation in the Colorado Kids Sun Care Program or about the information contained in the enclosed newsletter, you may call the Program Office at UCDHSC (303-315-2534) or contact Dr. Stefan Mokrohisky at Kaiser Permanente of Colorado (303-861-3558).

Sincerely,

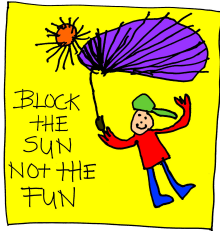

Lori A. Crane, Ph.D.
Principal Investigator
University of Colorado
School of Medicine

Stefan T. Mokrohisky, M.D.
Principal Investigator
Kaiser Permanente of Colorado
Department of Pediatrics

Joseph Morelli, M.D.
Co-Principal Investigator
University of Colorado
Departments of Dermatology and Pediatrics

Colorado Kids Sun Care Program

University of Colorado at Denver and Health Sciences Center
4200 E. 9th Avenue, Box B-119
Denver, Colorado 80262

May 15, 2006

Dear <<parent first and last name>>:

This is your fourth and final mailing for 2006 from the "Colorado Kids Sun Care Program." In the information enclosed, you will learn about the importance of sun protective hats in keeping <<child first name>> safe from the harmful effects of the sun. Please read it carefully! We have also enclosed a newsletter for <<child first name>> that provides sun safety information and activities specially designed for kids. We hope that you will encourage your child to do the activities in the newsletter.

We are including a sun protective hat to help you with your efforts to lower your child's chances of getting skin cancer some day. The hats were provided to us at a discount by sungrubbies.com. Also included with this mailing are discount coupons that can be used at two sun protection clothing websites: www.sungrubbies.com and www.sunfriendlyproducts.com. We hope you find this to be helpful!

If you have any questions about your participation in the Colorado Kids Sun Care Program or about the information contained in the enclosed newsletter, you may call the Program Office at UCDHSC (303-315-2534) or contact Dr. Stefan Mokrohisky at Kaiser Permanente of Colorado (303-861-3558).

Sincerely,

Handwritten signature of Lori A. Crane.

Lori A. Crane, Ph.D.
Principal Investigator
University of Colorado
School of Medicine

Handwritten signature of Stefan T. Mokrohisky M.D.

Stefan T. Mokrohisky, M.D.
Principal Investigator
Kaiser Permanente of Colorado
Department of Pediatrics

Handwritten signature of Joseph B. Morelli.

Joseph Morelli, M.D.
Co-Principal Investigator
University of Colorado
Departments of Dermatology and Pediatrics