

PROMOTING INFORMED DECISION MAKING ABOUT MAMMOGRAPHY

12-Month Follow-up Survey

I'll be asking you questions about your health and health practices.

Mammography History

First, I'd like to ask you about mammograms. A mammogram is a special x-ray picture taken of the breast to find cancer in its earliest stages. When you get a mammogram, your breasts are placed between plastic plates and flattened slightly to get a clear picture.

1.1 Since we spoke last year on <date of baseline survey>, have you had a mammogram?

If 1.1= Yes → 1.2a
No, Refused, Don't Know → 1.4a

A breast biopsy refers to the surgical removal of a sample of breast tissue for the purpose of determining the absence or presence of cancer. This is not an aspiration where a needle is inserted into the breast to remove fluid.

1.4a Since we spoke last year on <date of baseline survey>, how many benign (non-cancer) breast biopsies have you had? (Do not read choices. Verify this DOES NOT include biopsies prior to date of baseline survey.)

CLOSING: Women who have had breast cancer have special health care needs. We are only interviewing women who have not had breast cancer. Thank you very much for your time. I appreciate you talking with me.

1.4b Were you ever told that this biopsy/these biopsies showed atypical hyperplasia? (A benign (non-cancer) condition in which breast tissue has certain abnormal features.) (Verify this DOES NOT include biopsies prior to date of baseline survey.)
